Acclaimed Psychic Medium Lisa Scrivens Brings “A Night in Heaven” To The Prairies

After having back-to-back sold out shows in her hometown, Scrivens is offering residents of Western Canada a chance to connect with departed loved ones

Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada, June 9, 2014 - Television appearances by Theresa Caputo and John Edward have helped create more interest in psychic and medium abilities. Many such individuals - believers and skeptics alike - have witnessed the gifts of medium Lisa Scrivens, across Canada and the world. Many compare her gifts to those of Caputo and Edward. She has helped thousands of individuals connect with deceased loved ones - in person or by telephone - and is proud to announce her new tour across Western Canada, “A Night in Heaven with Lisa Scrivens.”

The medium knew she possessed a gift at a young age, and as she grew older she began to truly embrace her abilities. Private readings for Scrivens currently feature a 14 to 16 month waiting list. This new tour will allow individuals to see the medium connect with their loved ones who've passed on in a comfortable and welcoming atmosphere. "A Night in Heaven with Lisa Scrivens" marks the first time a medium from Western Canada has embarked on a tour. The tour will also feature musical performances by award-winning singer songwriter Sheena Grobb. Grobb's upcoming album is being mastered at London's famed Abbey Road Studios. "A Night in Heaven with Lisa Scrivens" currently features stops in Brandon, Calgary, and Regina, with more dates upcoming.

Tickets for the tour are now on sale at www.LisaScrivens.com via Brown Paper Tickets. Three pricing levels are available, Early Bird for CA $33.00, General Admission for CA $45.00 and VIP Seating available for CA $75.00. VIP Seating ticket holders have reserved seats in the first five rows and are able to stay for an intimate Q&A after the show. Future events will be posted on her website and Facebook page; anyone looking to book an event in their area can contact Scrivens via email.
